Other Board Matters

11. Board Comments

Supervisor Parker mentioned Monterey County Weekly article on childbirth options in the County and the Natividad Medical Center showed well in the article as it is only local hospital that provides V-Back births. She recounted the positive experience of her Staff Aide's birthing experience at Natividad.

The thanked those that worked to fund and support the on-call Doula program as it is very valuable to first time mothers and more experienced mothers.

She announced her $250 scholarships for three high school seniors for residents of the cities of Marina, Salinas, Seaside and the scholarship can be used for any aspect of college expenses. Please contact her office for more information.

12. CAO Comments and Referrals

The County Administrative Officer advised of one Board Referral from Supervisors Parker and Salinas' offices:
1) Existing County resources dedicated to early childhood development and opportunities to maximize impact. Referred to Health Services Department.
