My name is Fernando Dominguez and my brother Raymond Raya are filing this claim against Rialto Police Department and Pep's Towing. I ~~would~~ want the statement that I make to be considered included in and considered with ~~my~~ our claim form.

III HOW DID DAMAGE OR INJURY OCCUR?

On October 10th 2022 myself (Fernando Dominguez) and my brother Raymond Raya were driving on Riverside Ave and saw our friend Alex Martinez which he was making a left turn than a (R) turn onto Riverside Ave. me and my brother Raymond Raya had stopped to say to Alex made a (L) onto Casmalia driving up Casmalia my brother (Raymond Raya) and I seen a Rialto Police vehicle heading (E) on Casmalia and made a Uturn and got behind me (Fernando Dominguez) my brother Raymond Raya had parked in our friend's driveway (John Motley) at 12323 Lilae Ave Rialto CA and Raymond Raya got out of his vehicle my vehicle (Fernando Dominguez) parked my vehicle by the curb. Both keys were out of ignition. The officer Ramano walked up to Raymond Raya and said for him to get back into the car and told me (Fernando Dominguez) that if I moved he was going to shoot me. He told my brother Raymond Raya that he was taking his car before he ran his name and told him "weren't you the one I had detained the day before." my brother Raymond Raya told officer Ramano he never seen him in his life. After my brother said that to officer Ramano, my brother was handcuffed and was told his car was being impounded for Driving with a suspended license and my vehicle was also impounded by officer Ramano of seen at a crime scene that was committed. Both vehicles were registered with up to date Tags and insured. my vehicle had mine and my wifes name Marissa Barrios on the registration. The Rio Rico PD could of left our vehicles there but instead impounded them. me and my brother Raymond Raya were arrested on 10/10/22 for charges Ramano had wrote down which were: Burglary and conspiracy to commit a crime. We were detained at West Valley Detention center for 3 Days. We were released on October 13th due to charges never filed - (DA Reject) on my brother's release paperwork indicated the Rialto PD was looking for a BLUE ES Calade. Mine and my brother's vehicles are pearl white. ~~On Friday~~ my brother Raymond Raya never got his ID Back and was not with his property when he got released. My wallet was not with my property when I was released.

On Friday October 14th 2022 me and my brother came down to Rialto Police Station to file a complaint and asked where the rest of our property was at. Officer Rocky Johnson said to email the officer that had your property. Which was Officer C Sanchez.

and to file a complaint we had to go across the street to city Hall.

me and my brother Raymond filed a complaint that day. After we filed the complaint we (my brother and I) went to Pepe's Towing and I (Fernando Dominguez) got all my things out of my vehicle. my brother Raymond Raya asked a gentleman at Pepes towing if he can get his medication that he has to take on a daily basis. The gentleman told my brother Raymond Raya "NO" Raymond asked him the gentleman if he can get it for him and said ~~he~~ "NO" That night my brother Raymond Raya had gone to the San Bernardino Community Hospital in San Bernardino Emergency Room due to having chest pains.

On Tuesday October 18th called Pepes towing to see how much it was to get our car out and informed us it was already up to $1100 or so plus $200 release from Riato PD. my brother also contacted the Watch Commander and explained what happened and asking the watch Commander if ~~he~~ his car was taken due to a suspended license wouldn't it be on his charges when booked at West Valley Detention with the other booking charges that was dropped. The watch Commander said The officers don't have to give you a ticket they will subpoena you. That seems odd when how are you supposed to go to court without a case # and date. All the watch commander said there was nothing he can do.

A couple days later both of us (my brother Raymond) and I got a letter from Rialto PD with the following impound info. which the letter said to contact a number that was (909) 820-2578 to request an impound hearing and paying a fee to the police department, release of $2116.80

October 19 2022 to Fernando Dominguez went back to Rialto Police station to see about scheduling an impound hearing and to see why I had to do this if no charges was filed and it was a DA Reject and my car was indicated on impound paperwork that it was in storage. Officer Rocky Johnson said I wasn't eligible to do this hearing because my car was not on a 30 day hold. And still wanted me to pay the fees. So I was upset and left.

On November 11th 2022 my wife Marissa Barrios contacted lieutenant Skelf regarding this matter. The phone call was on speaker phone so I (Fernando Dominguez)

Can be a witness of what was said. Lieutenant Skelf had said if I brought a letter from the DA stating ALL FEES BE WAIVED than he will release the vehicles back to us (Raymond Raya & Fernando Dominguez) ON November 15th 2022 Raymond Raya and myself (Fernando Dominguez) went to Rancho Court house and got a letter from the DA stating all fees be waived and NO Charges were filed. and the District Attorney told me and Raymond to give a copy to Riata PD.

Nov. He went back to Riata PD and officer Rocky Johnson said he didn't care what that letter said that me and Raymond Raya still had to pay the fees.

Then me and Raymond went to SB Superior court to file a tow hearing and the judge said if we had some vehicle report that he would release our cars back to us After lunch we went back to the court and the judge had changed his mind. And told my brother the officer did not have to give him a ticket he can subpoena him.

ON Nov 22nd went back to Riata PD indicating about the fees and our cars. Finally officer Rocky Johnson signed and waived the fees and to give paperwork to Pepes Towing. Called Pepes towing and our vehicles were at Fontana yard and was told by Pepes towing that we still had to pay the $2000 fees and ~~then~~ ignored the DA Letter.

Our vehicles were auctioned on NOV. 23 2022. and my brother Raymond Raya got a call from an officer saying I told you weren't getting your car back.

In summary we feel our civil rights were violated and being falsely arrested on bogus charges when there was no officers at the scene where they indicated happened.
